Summary of Legislation: This bill establishes the State of Indiana Antiterrorism Fund, to be administered by the Department of Fire and Building Services. The purpose of the Fund is to provide money to: (1) regional hazardous materials response teams; and (2) other entities providing terrorism response.

This bill appropriates $300,000 to the state of Indiana Antiterrorism Fund.

Effective Date: July 1, 1999.

Explanation of State Expenditures: This bill establishes the State of Indiana Antiterrorism Fund and appropriates $300,000 from the state General Fund to the Indiana Antiterrorism Fund, beginning July 1, 1999, and ending June 30, 1002. The Fund is to be used for (1) regional hazardous materials response teams and (2) other entities providing terrorism response. The Fund is to be administered by the Department of Fire and Building Services. The State Fire Marshal is to distribute the money in the Fund. The cost of administering and distributing money from the Fund will have to be done within the existing budgets of the Department of Fire and Building Services and the State Fire Marshal.

Money in the Fund at the end of a state fiscal year does not revert to the state General Fund.

Explanation of State Revenues:

Explanation of Local Expenditures: Regional hazardous materials response teams or other entities providing terrorism response must meet qualifications, as established in the bill, in order to receive money from the Indiana Antiterrorism Fund. The money is to be used for the purposes of (1) training and (2) the purchase of equipment for the following: (A) regional hazardous materials response team. (B) the entities providing terrorism response training or response to terrorism activities, or both.
